

NHTEA Benefits of Membership

In addition to supporting your state Technology Education association, the mouthpiece of those who teach and administer the curriculum in NH, the following benefits apply:

- *recognize the NH Technology Education Program of the Year at the high school level and junior high/middle school level
- *recognize the NH Technology Education Teacher of the Year
- *provided with a professional advocate for Technology Education in NH
- *receive reduced rates at workshops
- *provide networking opportunities with colleagues from around the state and the region
- *professional development activities for members
- *represented at the state and national level of the Technology Student Association
- *assist in sponsoring and running the annual NH Technology Student Association conference as judges, event coordinators, etc.
- *participate in the Air National Guard Awareness Flight program
- *mentor Alternative IV certification candidates in Technology Education
- *participate in the New England Aerospace Education Teacher Workshops as presenters, etc. held annually in the spring
- *have a representative on the state pre-engineering advisory committee
- *affiliated with the New England Association of Technology Teachers
- *affiliated with the International Technology Education Association
- *provide workshops at the annual New England Association of Technology Teachers conference
- *new members receive a gift upon receipt of application and dues
- *surprise gifts for attendance at meetings
- *opportunities for leadership on the executive board

*opportunities to develop/update the NH state curriculum guide